

THE REAL DEAL

TENANT SIGNINGS: The iconic, color-changing Bank of America

Tower at International Place – to be renamed Miami Tower on Jan. 1 as the bank departs – recently completed five leases totaling 9,519 square feet, says Tony Puente, senior vice president of Fairchild Partners, the building's leasing agent. Tenants involved are bakery and café Au Bon

Tony Puente

Pain, Daniel David Custom Clothier, the American Arbitration Association, law firm Ver Ploeg & Lumpkin PA and pharmaceutical supplier One World. The soon-to-be Miami Tower, a 47-story, class A office skyscraper in downtown, signed 62,000 square feet of transactions this year, including a five-year, 34,536-square-foot lease with UBS Financial Services valued at $7.5 million.