

DAVID SPILLERS has joined Miami-based Fairchild Partners as senior vice president, where he will work to originate and oversee sales and brokerage transactions for the firm's office and industrial practices.

Spillers

Spillers has more than two decades of experience in the South Florida market and was previously affiliated with the Katsikos Group and Codina Realty Services, where he served as vice president of commercial sales and leasing for 10 years.