Fairchild Partners' Juncadella joins CREW

Maria Juncadella, vice president of Fairchild Partners, a leading commercial real estate services firm, has been accepted for membership in CREW – Miami (Commercial Real Estate Women). As a member, Juncadella will work to advance the success of women in commercial real estate through education, business development, networking and community service.

"I am honored to be a part of an organization that does so much for so many women throughout South Florida," said Juncadella. "My objective as a member of CREW-Miami is to use my business and civic background to assist the organization with membership development and with the planning of its 20th Anniversary celebration."

As director of finance and marketing at Fairchild Partners, Juncadella plays a key role in managing the firm's property management and building renovation services on select commercial real estate projects, as well as serving as liaison with the firm's public relations and advertising partners.

She is a licensed commercial sales associate and is a candidate for CCIM designation.

Juncadella is active in a number of civic and community organizations, and currently serves on the Parent Steering Committee at Hillsdale College, Michigan, as well as the Parent Advisory Board at Belen Jesuit Preparatory School in Miami. Juncadella earned a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology and Psychology from the University of Miami.

She and her husband Jose have three children, and reside in Coral Gables.
